From the Crown

Greetings unto the wondrous pop ace of the Outlands!

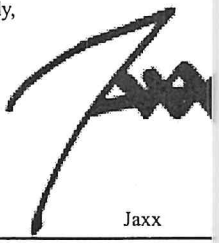
We have had a great beginning, a l have attended several events to which We would send out thank-you's. Saint Golias, we thank you for gi ng the Kingdom with the baskets and baskets of largesse as well as a great feast, good company, song d dance. We wish you 25 more years in the SCA. Scorpions Hollow, we thank you for good fighting, f sting, and reveling within your castle walls. A good time was had by all at the War of the Staked Plains.

And speaking of War... Fellow O anders, We have grave news to pass on to you this day - news that concerns the very safety of our K gdom. To the West, the Armies of Atenveldt and Artemisia have threatened our Sovereign power. t this very moment their armies prepare to attack. Our Scouts report the two Kingdoms are allied against ;, and if unchecked plan to march across the Outlands destroying everything in their wake. Alas, tl will not happen. The Kingdom of the Outlands and the Kingdom of Caid will ally, and descend upon eir armies as they form up near the Estrella Mountains. Together, Our two Kingdoms' forces will bring stice to the land. Sound the horns, and raise arms once again, the time for War is now. Let us come toge er and once again remind those who would thwart us why everyone fears the Outlands Army. Sharpe your swords, fletch your arrows, bring out the green and gold, and prepare for time is short. We hav need of everyone to assure our victory against the Armies of Atenveldt and Artemisia. With mighty Caic y our side, we will bring peace to the Western Lands. To bring this peace, we will first make WAR!!

In preparation We will hold meeti gs of the peerages at Hunters' Feast, al-Barran, Caerthe, and Citadel feasts. Please read elsewhere abc times and locations. Everyone look to the web, your local officers, and newsletters for further informatio about the War in all aspects -- everyone can be of assistance.

We look forward to attending ma wondrous events and meeting new friends as We travel to rally our troops and ensure there are foods fs and weaponry prepared aplenty.

In service to the Outlands and all r wonderful people, We are pleased to reign as your Sovereign Lord and Lady,



Jaxx

Their Excellencies, Deotrich and Leonora, have decreed that the celebration shall again feature a bountiful pot luck feast. Each gentle planning on attending should please provide some sort of dish to share (finger foods, side dishes, or desserts). In the Shire's mountain stronghol a roaring fire keeps back the cold winter night and the feast is spread upon the table. It is a night for ta s, a night for adventure. Late Breaking News! The Autoc it has called for a dessert competition! Bring your most irresistible confections and the populace will udge their divine qualities.

In a decisive effort to do his part for the Outlands Toys for Tots drive, the urrent Doge has decreed that each dollar spent on new, unwrapped toys brought for the toy drive will also count for two votes. (please bring receipts) Or, if you are truly daring and masochistic, you may offer y urself as a candidate for the inestimable position. . . (cash funds go to the Shire of Caer Galen)

From the Seneschal:

Unto the Populace of the Outlands does Master Adam Stedefast, Kingdom Seneschal, send greetings,

At Kingdom Arts & Sciences Competition, held in Their Majesties' Shire of Dunthaich Beinne Aird, I had the pleasure of reading Kingdom Law, including the changes made by Their Royal Majesties, Bela and Elizabeth. This revised kingdom law is included in the Red Tape Issue III, that you received in November. I encourage everyone to read Red Tape III, cover-to-cover. Included in that special issue of the Outlandish Herald are the updated Administrative Policies of the Outlands. In the policies you will find detailed explanations of the Non-Member Surcharge (effective January 1st, 2003), minor waiver and attendance procedures, requirements for events, duties of kingdom and local officers, definitions of the awards of the Outlands, and other useful pieces of instruction.

Many thanks go to Her Excellency, Baroness Christina McCarty, who published that additional issue of the Outlandish Herald as her last act as Kingdom Chronicler. Thank you for a job well done. Congratulations must also go to His Excellency, Master Massimiliano Pontieri dal Sasso who has accepted the position of Kingdom Chronicler of the Outlands and to Lady Dubheasa Eachinse, the new Kingdom Equestrian Marshal.

Thanks and congratulations should always be given to the volunteers who, through service, provide the backbone for the mighty Outlands. All those who wish to take their place among these heroes who support the kingdom have another chance to do so; Bolster the Outlands at Estrella War. Even if you are unable to attend, opportunities to help prepare the Outlands for war are still available. Warriors, archers, artisans, heralds, marshals, waterbearers, chirurgeons and many other volunteers are needed, both at war and at practice. All those who come by these words can step forward and present the Outlands with victory at Estrella War, through a Total War Effort. Each one of us makes a difference.

Virtue and decency are so nearly related that it is difficult to separate them from each other but in our imagination. - Cicero

In Service,
Adam Stedefast

From the Kingdom Event Bid Coordinator:

Greetings from The Honorable Lord Duncan MacAllister, Kingdom Event Bid Coordinator!

The fall Kingdom Events are naught but glorious memories now; Crown Tourney in Hinterlands, A&S Competition in Duthaich Bienne Aird, and Coronation in the mighty Citadel. All made successful through the hard work and dedication of the groups, the autocrats and all those who stood behind them. But the spring season is fast approaching, and the bids for these events are sorely lacking!! Crown Tournament is scheduled for a southern venue in March, A&S Collegium in April, also in a southern clime, and Coronation in May for the northern reaches. Bids for all these events are encouraged, nay HIGHLY encouranged. Don't think your group can do it alone? Pool resources and talents with other nearby groups. Make it a team effort! Three or four smaller groups banding together to hold a kingdom event can do wonderful things. If you have a venue, but not the funds, and you can't convince other groups to go in with you, contact me. I'll make things work so you can be financially able to hold that event. There is no obstacle that cannot be overcome in holding a kingdom event. Let your group shine brightly....bid on these events!

In service,
The Honorable Lord Duncan MacAllister
Kingdom Event Bid Coordinator

From the (Outgoing) White Stag Principal Herald:

Greetings from Balthazar. By the time you read this missive, I will have resigned my position as White Stag Principal Herald. I wanted to take a moment to thank people who have made my tenure so much easier.

First, I want to thank all of the Outlands scribes. Shortly after I stepped up to this position, the Scribe's Office was thrown into turmoil, and there were a multitude of problems. I don't want to say that everything is all better now, but things are light years better than they were a year and a half ago, and it is because our scribes have worked tirelessly to fulfill the needs of our Crowns, and the hearts of Outlands subjects. I admire you all, and thank you from the bottom of my heart.

On a similar note, I would like to thank THL Maria Sol de Leon for her hard work as Kingdom Scribe. She has a thankless job, and does her best to do as good a job as possible. I've never seen anyone work as hard in my entire SCA career.

I thank my deputies for working so hard, and doing so much for me - especially Lord Naitan (Palmer), THL Pendar (Rampart), and Lady Sorcha (Weel). They have performed invaluable services to me. Other heralds, such as Sir Cathyn, Lady Alia, Countess Anne Aliz, Lady Regana, Countess Aindrea, Maistre Louis-Phillippe and Baron Timothy have been faithful assistants, and good friends. The number of people who have helped me are too numerous to mention, but I hope that they realize my gratitude.

Finally, I thank Mistress Tatiana, the new White Stag Principal Herald. She will, I have no doubt, be an exceptional White Stag. I have the utmost of faith in her. I pass to her a strong College of Heralds, and I pass to the College a capable leader.

Thank you all for all of the assistance that you have given me. I have enjoyed this job considerably, and will very much miss it.

In service,
Balthazar
(former) White Stag Principal Herald

From the Kingdom Rapier Marshal:

Greetings from the Kingdom Rapier Marshal! As WAR approaches, I would like to update you on a few things:

This year's war will include Death from Behind in all scenarios. Rather than have to go over this combat convention before every scenario as we've had to do in years past, the 4 Principal Kingdoms (Outlands, Atenveldt, Caid, and Artemesia) will be instituting a 'war authorization' of sorts to be given out at war practices. Our goal is to get everyone familiar with the combat conventions in force at War before the fighting begins. Any outlander wanting to fence in the melees at War should attend one of the regional fighter practices to get their war authorization ahead of time. Otherwise, you may have more hoops to jump through on-site.

At the Known World Academy of the Rapier in October, the Outlands was approved to participate in the inter-kingdom Sidesword experiment. We will be using the approved Society rules, with a couple of qualifications. If you are interested in participating in this experiment and have been authorized in schlagger for at least a year, please contact me directly for approval. Lord Thomas will be my deputy in charge of this program.

Finally, I need all group and authorizing marshals to contact me by December 10 with their reports. I also need an updated list of all authorized fencers in your area. Anyone I do not hear from by the 10th will be dropped from the marshallate roster. If you have any questions, please e-mail me at rjackson@justice.com.

In Service,
Don Carrick

From the Minister of Children:

Greeting to the populace of the Mighty Outlands,

In less than three months we will be marching off to war! The treaty negotiations are complete and can be read at http.//www.outlands.org/estrella/estrellatreaty.html. There is a section concerning boffer fighting and tournaments.

The Outlands will be hosting a Boffer Tournament at Estrella. The Tournament will be on Friday, the fourteenth of February at 3:00PM. I hope to see the Outlands well represented at the tournament. Please plan to attend even if you do not have children participating. Let's show the known world that the populace of the Outlands supports our future - our Children!

The tournament will be double elimination and there will be three age categories, 6 and under, 7-11, and 12-15. The Outlands will also be hosting Friday's activities at the children's center. Any and all volunteers to help at the children's center will be most welcome.

The children's center is a wonderful place for the children from all the kingdoms to mix and mingle. Please contact me at rhiannon1@zianet.com (remember it is rhiannon1 - not just Rhiannon) or (505) 382-3551.

Rhiannon
Minister of Children

From the Minister of Arts and Sciences:

Greetings Outlanders, Winter is well and truly upon us now and I am sure most of you are already almost finished with your Estrella A&S entries for 2003! Just a hint, there is a lot of emphasis at the Estrella competition on authenticity and documentation. I will gladly help any of you with these as I know documentation is particularly vexing for many.

This year's Kingdom A&S Competition was wonderful and I want to again thank the Shire of Duthaich Beinne Aird, the autocrat, Lady Sara Beauchamp, and the feastocrat, Lady Sabine de Falaise for putting on such a great event. It was my first competition as your Kingdom Minister and tho' I might have looked like I was having a psychotic episode most of the time, I really enjoyed it and was truly awed by the number and splendor of the entries on display.

This year's winners were:

Functional - 1st place, Lord Marko Evanovich Panfilov for his scribes writing slope 2nd place - THL Daniel Lark of Fletcher's Glen for his woodwork (many pieces!)

Visual - 1st Place- Lady Cecily de Heslington for her Tudor Miscellany 2nd place - Lord Marko Evanovich Panfilov - for his Golden Flame Scroll

Performing Arts and Letters - 1st Place - THL Meenakhshi de Gama for her Indian Temple Dance 2nd Place - Lady Cecily de Heslington for her poem

Domestic Arts - 1st place, Lady Arwen Southernwood for Sausages 2nd place - Lady Arwen Southernwood - for Gourds in the Roman Style

Fiber - 1st place - THL Hedwig Kettuen for a man's 11-12th century tunic (2nd year in a row) 2nd place - THL Jorunn nic Lochlainn -Elizabethan embroidered gloves.

This year's overall Kingdom Arts and Sciences Champion is Lady Cecily de Heslington. Her three entries had the highest overall score. Lord Marko ran a close 2nd at this - his three entries only averaged .5 lower. The Kingdom Scribe's Backscroll competition was won by Mistress Taryn Brannick and THL Aildhicinna MacAilpen.

I have MANY thank you's to the wonderful people who made this competition run so smoothly (trust me, it could have been a LOT worse). To the many judges, some who pre-registered and some who volunteered on the day, Her Majesty Elizabeth, who sent very calm and courtly replies to all my frantic emails, to Duke Irel (who also judged many entries) and Lord Fergus MacClennan who both heralded for me at various times. Mistress Rosalind of Wellmark ran the Backscroll competition as well as acting as a judge. Lady Chiara Grassi, who did a trial run on the new judging forms and unasked, thought to bring clipboards for us, Baroness Chendra who judged and took pictures of all the entries (coming soon to a webpage near you) THL Jorunn did all the registration in the morning and a HUGE THANKS to Maestra Francesca di Pavia and Duchess Elisheva bat Simon Halevi - Maestra Francesca helped me immensely by helping assign judges, with the judging itself and with the after competition work. Duchess Elisheva was an invaluable calm voice throughout the day who helped shuffle and organise papers, fed me, and acted as a judge as well as helped with after competition things, as did Mistress Rowen Brithwallt, Master Louis Phillippe and THL Hedwig. Thank you to Her Excellency Claudia for helping keep me awake on the long drive up and back and for insuring I never had a psychotic episode all weekend (again, I just looked like I was having one...).

Such a large event cannot be pulled off by one person and I am grateful to the MANY fine people of this great Kingdom of ours who stepped up to bat on the day of and helped make it all go - I know I have left out many and I thank each and every one of you from the bottom of my heart.

Again, Estrella will be on us before we know it, please contact me if you need help with any aspects of competition entries - let's do our best and take home the A&S War Point! We still need a bid for Queen's Prize and please stay tuned, Her Majesty Kathryn of Iveragh and I may have some surprises in store for Queen's Prize in 2003!

THL Hedwig Kettuen has agreed to be my drop-dead deputy - she was previously the Kingdom A&S Minister in Drachenwald and is really overqualified for the job. THL Jorunn nic Lochlainn is the new Northern Regional Deputy and many thanks to Mistress Monika von Zell, who has continued to act as the Southern Regional Deputy.

As always, I am eager and willing to help those artisans who need assistance, you have but to ask!

Toujours a vos ordres,
Margaret

From the Equestrian Marshal:

Greetings unto the Equestrians of the Outlands,

This is Lady Dubheasa, the Kingdom Equestrian Marshal. Thank you to THL Siubhan MacDuff for her hard work and dedication as the former Equestrian Marshal for the Outlands. Her generosity and wonderful annual event will be missed. We hope she will join us in the future as we thunder across the fields of green and gold. I am very excited for this opportunity serve the Outlands in this capacity.

I would like to encourage everyone to contact me with ideas to help strengthen the Outlands as a formidable force among equestrians of the Known World. The riders of this Kingdom are the best and I look forward seeing everyone on the tourney fields, old friends and new.

There are traditionally several events during the year at which horses are welcome and I want to remind everyone that your support for equestrian activities is always welcome and appreciated. I will be contacting the marshals to inquire about activities in your regions.

I can be contacted through the information in the directory in the back of the OH.

Yours in Service,
Dubheasa

From the Chronicler:

Greetings, Outlands!

Hi, I'm new here. Please allow me to introduce myself - I am Baron Massimiliano Pontieri dal Sasso, known to some elder few as Don Max. I am your new Kingdom Chronicler. This is my first issue of the Outlandish Herald. As such, I am sure it is riddled with error and awkwardness. And so I must ask you all, please forgive my errors, but be sure to call anything you notice to my attention. I will only improve with your help.

I hope that you will all take a few moments whenever you are able to offer a hearty thank-you to my predecessor, Baroness Christina - her contributions and hard work have streamlined many of the functions of this office, and for the past two years she has volunteered countless hours to make sure that we all received a quality publication. Three cheers are definitely in order!

Over the next few months I hope to revamp a few of the processes even further - a thing that would be impossible without Christina's groundwork.

I'm sure you noticed that every piece of art in this issue is Dover clip art. This is very nice and looks quite professional, but I am sure that we have artists out there who would love to see their work in print. If you are an artist, please contact me for guidelines.

Speaking of artwork, I would like to issue a special request of the children of the Outlands. I would like to do at least two issues featuring the art of the children of the Outlands. This means that if you are under 14 or so, we need YOU to send us your artwork! Imagine your drawing on the cover, your borders framing the page, Your name in the art credits! Start your career as a published artist or graphic designer today!

For anyone sending artwork (not just children): I will accept artwork in just about any format. I cannot scan anything larger than 11" by 17", so please make the originals smaller than that. If you wish to send electronic copies of your art, make the file as high-resolution as you can, and then compress it when you sent it to me. I'd rather not crash servers, but I want the art to look as good on the page as it did when you made it.

I prefer event submissions, letters, etc. via e-mail. Please send things to chronicler@outlands.org. I am, of course, also able to accept things via paper mail, if e-mail is not convenient for you. My address appears in the back of this issue.

I have taken my good friend Andréva (You probably know her as Rhoanne) as a deputy to help me produce the OH and to fill in if I ever get sick or die or anything like that. As a rule of thumb, anything that looks good or elegant on these pages is probably her contribution, the rest is my work exclusively.

If you have questions, comments, or complaints, please feel free to contact me. As I said before, I cannot improve if I don't know what's wrong - and I hope that each issue is better than the last. The Outlands deserves nothing less than the best newsletter in the Known World, and I intend to give it to her.

I hope to talk to all of you soon
-Max

The OH is printed presently with an 8-point font that allows for approximately 300 words in a one-half (1/2) page article, and 600 words in a one (1) page article. All event articles are allowed three (3) showings in the Outlandish Herald, one (1) of which MUST be the month of the event (i.e. A March event MUST run in the March OH). The other two publication months are typically the two months preceding the event. An autocrat may request publication more than two months in advance, but that publication will count against the two (2) publication limit. Additional printings may be purchased at the current advertising rates. Generally, event announcements must fit on 1/2 page in months prior to the event, and 1 page the month of the event. Announcements exceeding this size may be trimmed to fit. Optionally, if you wish to exceed this limit, you can purchase space at current advertising rates. Where possible, please provide the Kingdom Chronicler's office with a prior month article, and a month of article fitting the above criteria for publication.
